The following information was supplied on changes within the 6th Border Guard Bn :

1. The training company of the battalion was moved from Csorna (P 48/Y 13) to Nagykanizsa (Y 4/A 26) in April 1949. The company subordination to the 6th Border Guard Bn was not affected by the transfer. *
2. The Sopron (P 48/X 63) 18th Border Guard Co was moved to the Yugoslav border in early October 1949. Capt Katter, previously CO of the 16th Border Guard Co, had been appointed CO of the 18th Border Guard Co before the transfer. **
3. The border sector of the 18th Border Guard Co was taken over by the 17th Border Guard Co which had been reinforced by personnel of the 16th Border Guard Co.
4. The following officers were identified as company commanders in the 6th Border Guard Bn :

Capt Hartmann, CO of the 16th Border Guard Co in Suettor (P 48/X 83), previously CO of the 17th Co; Capt Morocz, CO of the 17th Border Guard Co in Sopron, previously CO of the 13th Co.

[REDACTED] Comment :

* A report of late April 1949, indicating that the 6th Border Guard Bn had no training company, was commented on to the effect that the training company of the battalion might have been dissolved. However, in November 1949, [REDACTED] the training com- 25X1 pany of the 6th Border Guard Bn was stationed in Nagykanizsa. This information, doubted at that time, was substantiated by the above
